Re: United States v. Minh Quang Pham
12 Cr. 423 (AJN)

Dear Judge Nathan:

After numerous calls, voicemails, and faxes to USP Florence ADMAX, I was able to arrange a legal call with Minh Quang Pham and spoke with him on May 16, 2019. Although he had been informed of the Court's granting of my request for a stay of his § 2255 application pending the Supreme Court's decision in United States v. Davis, 18-431, he was unclear whether I would be filing a submission on his behalf following announcement of the Davis decision.

I conferred with Mr. Pham regarding his pro se submissions of March 13, 2019, April 3, 2019, and April 8, 2019. He now understands that within one week of the decision in Davis, the parties will submit a joint briefing schedule, following which I will be filing a submission on his behalf, the government may file a response, and the Court will render a decision on his motion. In addition, he is informed that I will request an immediate legal call to discuss the Davis decision with him, its impact on his motion, and the submission to be made on his behalf.

Mr. Pham wishes me to continue to represent him and requests that his § 2255 motion be stayed pending a decision in Davis. He understands that I will be filing a post-Davis submission on his behalf and that all submissions on his behalf should be made through counsel.

Your consideration is greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Bobbi C. Sternheim
